The card readers are not working in nearly all the wards in Ahiazu, Mbaize in Imo State.

At Ogbo Umueze Polling Unit 2, 12 Ward they are having to accredit manually by checking names against the register. This takes about 25 minutes.

Voters are waiting patiently and there are no foreign observers!

The president has just said on NTA that the issue is national and that the governor of Anambra

State has called him fuming about the situation in his state.

He was asked whether this was just a problem in PDP states and there seemed to be no problem with APC-controlled states. He rejected this notion.
